- Information supplied in the Discovery Questionnaire, including product requirements, budget, preferences, practical requirements, and compatibility information.
- Quotation, payment, and transaction information necessary to administer the service.
- Communications between the client and WeSearch.
- Technical information collected by the website or analytics tools, where applicable and properly disclosed.

WeSearch does not routinely require ID numbers, passport numbers, or identity documents for ordinary product-research enquiries.

4. PURPOSE OF PROCESSING

To provide services, communicate with clients and comply with legal obligations.

5. LEGAL BASIS FOR PROCESSING

WeSearch will process personal information only on a lawful basis applicable to the particular activity, including where processing is necessary to take steps at the request of the data subject, perform an agreement, comply with a legal obligation, pursue a legitimate purpose where permitted, or obtain consent where consent is required.

6. DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Information may be shared with service providers and authorities where legally required.

7. CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS

Where a service provider stores or processes information outside South Africa, WeSearch will assess and address the applicable cross-border requirements before using the service for live client information

8. INFORMATION SECURITY

WeSearch will use reasonable technical and organisational safeguards appropriate to the nature of the information and foreseeable risks.

- Access will be limited to people who need it.
- Accounts should use strong passwords and multi-factor authentication where available.
- Devices and software used to process client information should be appropriately secured and updated.
- Security measures should be reviewed when risks or systems change

9. RETENTION

Information is retained only as required by law.

10. RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

Request access to personal information where the law provides a right of access.

- Request correction or updating of inaccurate information.
- Raise an objection where applicable.
- Request deletion where legally available.
- Withdraw consent where processing is based on consent, subject to lawful limitations.
- Complain to WeSearch and, where applicable, the Information Regulator.

11. Direct Marketing

WeSearch will comply with applicable requirements for direct marketing. Service communications are distinct from marketing communications. Where consent or another lawful basis is required for marketing, WeSearch will use the appropriate process and provide a practical way to stop future marketing.

12. INFORMATION REGULATOR

Complaints may be submitted to the Information Regulator at <https://inforegulator.org.za/complaints/>

13. CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

This policy may be updated from time to time.
